SIDEPATH LEAGUE

Organization Perfected at Board of Trade Rooms Tuesday Night.

DR. SIMPSON IS PRESIDENT

A Committee Chosen to Push the Sidelpath Construction. The Path's Route. A Fine Road to Braytonville. All Cyclists Requested to Subscribe.

There was a meeting at the board of trade rooms Tuesday evening of those interested in the North Adams Sidelpath league, and organization was perfected by the election of the following officers: President, Dr. George F. Simpson; secretary, E. J. Byam; treasurer, L. W. White; executive committee, C. H. Hubbard, Edwin Barnard, B. E. Lovejoy; construction committee, H. E. Blake, M. E. Couch, F. W. Reed, John H. Kane. A committee, consisting of E. E. Hyatt, L. W. White and Dr. George F. Simpson, was appointed to draft by-laws and report at the next meeting.

Mr. Hubbard reported that Tuesday Dr. Simpson, City Engineer Emigh and H. E. Blake and he went over the proposed route for the circle path through the valley from River street extension to Braytonville and found that a path could be easily constructed by crossing the river at the end of the extension and then following the stream back of the Agricultural society's grounds and coming out on the main road at Braytonville by passing under the bridge at that point, there being sufficient room for that purpose.

It is proposed to construct the path five feet wide, except at the points where it would be impossible to do so. The construction committee will have charge of the work of securing the right of way, and will at once see the property owners in the sections desired to be traversed, and as soon as their consent is obtained the work of constructing the path and bridges will be commenced.

It is earnestly desired that every rider, whether gentleman or lady, should join the league, for when the path is constructed there is not a rider in the city who will not enjoy the run by the new route to the state road and thence to Williamstown.

In addition to the list already published the following have joined the league: W. A. Gallup, F. P. Pearson, R. L. Chase, C. A. Brown, G. W. Gould, J. D. Pease, A. E. Gould, F. E. White, John Boyd, Elizabeth C. Boyd, Annie Boyd, Thomas F. Boyd, J. B. Temple, E. D. Church, C. C. Church, D. H. Varnum, W. H. Sperry, C. C. Isbell, E. Barnard, Frank L. Tilton, H. E. Blake, F. E. Blake, C. H. Hubbard, J. W. Wilkinson, J. H. Kane, J. H. Emigh, F. W. Streeter, E. D. Angell, A. W. Hunter, C. O. Sherman, F. F. Dowlin, J. A. Boughton, P. J. Ashe, E. O. Stewart, Charles Ryan, L. M. Barnes, Louis C. Chase, Burdell S. Kemp, Fred Seavey, W. Bennett, Rev. J. C. Tebbetts, Clara A. White, Yon & Morin, F. W. G. Bartlett, C. C. Walker, Paul Lecelle.

NO FOUL PLAY.

Brese Was Not Murdered. Wanted Into the River When Drunk.

The theory that Louis Brese of Lee was murdered has been run down, and is evidently false. All clues point to the probability that late at night, in an intoxicated condition, he wandered over the track and fell into the river. The whereabouts of parties slightly suspected have been established beyond doubt, and the stories of people who heard Brese's cries for help vary so greatly that there is little or nothing in them. It has been found that he left the house, where it was alleged he had quarreled early in the evening, and that the party with which he had a slight dispute about a bottle of beer did not go out at all during the night. But from 7 o'clock his whereabouts cannot be accounted for. At that time he stood on Prospect street talking to a stranger, and was somewhat under the influence of drink.

The Bazaar on Fire.

Some of the finest views ever given by an animated picture machine will be seen at Columbia opera house, beginning Thursday night, when Edison's latest success, "The Bioscope," opens a three nights' engagement. The views will include McKinley's inauguration, Queen Victoria's jubilee and the fire at the Charity bazaar in Paris. Thursday will be ladies' night and women will be admitted to reserved seats for 15 cents.

The hand of James Mulqueen was caught in the rollers at the Windsor print works yesterday afternoon and the thumb and forefinger were crushed. Dr. Dewey dressed the fingers.

HOM TOM DEPARTS

"NO COME BACK AGAIN," SAID HE

A White Wife Left to Shift for Herself and Four Children. The American Style of Adjusting Domestic Difficulties.

Hom Tom, alias Henry Thompson, is evidently becoming very much Americanized, he having left his family for parts unknown. He deviated from the usual custom, however, by giving his wife fair warning and telling her "no come back again."

Hom Tom has been running a laundry at 31 Washington avenue, and for some time he has run one on Spring street, Williamstown, but this was recently closed.

His wife is a white woman whom he married a year ago last February, and it was she that went to Chief Kendall with her tale of woe after the departure of Mr. Tom. Her former husband is serving a 12-years' sentence in state prison at Dannemora, N. Y. She has two sons by him, aged four and three years respectively, and a pair of twin daughters seven months old which are the fruit of her union with her oriental spouse.

The causes which have led up to this sudden severance of the domestic ties of the Tom household are not fully understood except by the parties directly concerned, but the sequel is so purely American that it is to be inferred that the causes must have been among the large list which produces such results with too great frequency in this land of the free.

It is gratifying to see those who come to us from foreign shores adjust themselves to the customs and usages of the country, but in some things at least it would seem to be well for them to "make haste slowly."

NORTH ADAMS INVENTION.

A New and Desirable Valve by Messrs. Hodge and Geer.

A patent has been issued to William F. Hodge of this city and Harvey M. Geer, Baliscon Spa, N. Y., for a valve having a soft elastic packing surrounding the stem immediately of the ordinary stuffing box and valves and adapted to be compressed and expanded simultaneously by the screw-action of the stem which is provided with a conical collar. The valve has some very desirable features, is now being manufactured and some of them are in use in this city. Mr. Geer is the engineer who superintended the building of the Notch dam.

District Court.

William Sullivan, drunk, fined $5.

Old complaints against William M. Quilman and Myron H. Benton, boys charged with breaking and entering a tenement owned by William L. Scully, were filed away.

William F. Horrigan, drunk, probation for three months.

Matthew H. Lotrop, drunk, fined $5.

John Lyons, drunk, fined $3.

John McClain of Williamstown and John McNamara were sent to the house of correction for 30 days for drunkenness.

"Howland Terrace" Won.

An exciting horse race took place last evening on the Zylontie road near the Howland house between E. L. Orcutt's, "Howland Terrace," and "Dark Secret" owned by W. J. McMahon of Pittsfield, for a purse of $50. "Howland Terrace" won two out of three heats. John J. Laughlin was starter and Charles Howland referee.

The Weavers' Strike.

A committee representing the Union and Beaver weavers on strike has had a conference with William Arthur Gallup one of the proprietors of the mills. The conference has not resulted in any settlement. The committee would not authorize any strike for the strikers and will probably go before a meeting of the operatives for instructions. A settlement will soon be reached.

Result Was Fatal.

Ruth, the 15-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Johnson of 188 River street, whose terrible burning accident was related in THE TRANSCRIPT Tuesday, died this morning at 1.30 o'clock. Prayer was offered at the house today by Rev. J. C. Tebbetts and the remains were taken on the 1.24 p. m. train to Hoosick Falls, N. Y., for interment.

Dr. Thomas W. Meekins.

The Northampton Gazette has the following editorial on the death of that grand Northampton man, Dr. Thomas W. Meekins, father of E. M. Meekins of North Adams, account of which was duly made in THE TRANSCRIPT:

A marked character in the life of this town and city, and in fact of a wide surrounding region, for half a century, departed in the death of Dr. Thomas W. Meekins. Educated in the public schools of his native town of Williamstown and at Williamstown seminary and the Berkshire medical school, he early became famous after settling here, not only as a dentist of rare skill, but as a musical director of unusual talent, and for 30 years at least he was the most prominent man in the latter direction that ever lived here. He knew how to manage musical people. In this particular, always so difficult, he was very successful. He was a great lover of sports and spent much time in his earlier years with his gun and rod, and was never more happy than when in quest of game or angling for trout, and few sportsmen were more successful than he. His intelligence was of a superior order. He was a deep thinker and a close reasoner, and he was at home in any company and on almost any subject. He took a keen interest in ancient history and matters pertaining to the early settlement of this region and was well informed in such matters. He had a large collection of ancient articles and of photographs of old buildings and scenery in Northampton. His articles on old times recently published are valuable contributions to the history of his times. His genial nature won him a host of friends. In fact, it may truthfully be said that he had no enemies. His disposition was amiable and sunny, which made him a delightful companion. His friendship was strong and enduring, as the writer can testify from a lifelong acquaintance. He was never false, never treacherous. Deceit, double-dealing, shamming, trickery, were foreign to his nature. Many of his desirable traits of character he inherited from his father, who was distinguished for his quiet disposition and as an intelligent student of current history and antiquity. His familiar figure will be greatly missed on our streets, and the charm of his winning personality will be missed in social circles. Friend of my youth as playmate and schoolmate, constant in the years of maturity, true and faithful to the end, farewell!

Hebrew Wedding.

Jacob Abienstram and Miss Jani Davi-off were married Tuesday evening by Rabbi Rodner. The Bialko box factory on Washington avenue was used as a place for feasting after the ceremony. The wedding was observed as Hebrew weddings generally are.

A Sudden Death.

Mrs. Eunice Spooner, an old resident, died suddenly of heart disease last night. The funeral will be held at the Congregational church at 2 p. m. Thursday.

A DISAPPOINTED SENATOR.

Baltimore, Sept. 15.—United States Senator George L. Wellington has resigned the chairmanship of the Republican state central committee, thus relinquishing the leadership of the party in this state, which he has held for the past three years. This action was taken at a meeting of the committee and is the direct result of the senator's defeat at the recent convention at Ocean City.

In resigning the chairmanship Senator Wellington delivered a bitter speech in which he is alleged to have asserted that the Republicans are doomed to certain defeat in the coming campaign in Maryland.

FIVE MEN LYNCHED.

An Indiana Mob Shoots and Hangs Five Burglars This Morning.

Versailles, Ind., September 15.—A mob of 400 men early this morning lynched Lyle Levi, Bert Andrews, Clifford Gordon, William Jenks and Hiney Shuler. They were taken from the authorities. The men had been arrested for burglary.

Frequent robberies had enraged the citizens of the county, and the mob was composed of citizens from Milan, Sunman and other towns. The mob on horseback entered the town an hour after midnight and called out Jailor Konan, who, upon refusing to give up the keys, was overpowered. The mob soon pushed its way into the cell rooms, and in their impatience first fired on the five prisoners and then dragged them to a tree a square from the jail door and hung them up.

Andrews and Gordon had already been wounded, having been shot several times while attempting to rob a store at Correct last Saturday night. Shuler was in jail for attempted burglary and Levi and Jenkins had just been indicted by the grand jury for robbery. They had failed to give bonds and were put in jail last evening.

It is thought that Levi and Shuler were both dead from the shots fired by the mob when taken out of the jail. The badges that were on the wounded men were found later this morning along the street, where they had been torn off as the men were dragged along.

Levi was an old soldier and bore on his face wounds received during the war of the rebellion. None of the lynchers are known. They all came from a distance, presumably from the neighborhood of Correct, where the two men were arrested Saturday night.

PRESIDENT ANDREWS.

Off the Wires.

Madrid, Spain, Sept. 15.—The war department is concentrating six thousand troops with the intention of immediately dispatching them as reinforcements to the Spanish army in Cuba.

New York, Sept. 15.—The Queen's county grand jury at Long Island City today began hearing the testimony in the case of William Guldensuppe, who is alleged to have been murdered in a house at Woodside, town of Newton, by Martin Thorn and Mrs. Mack. Some 30 witnesses were summoned to appear before the grand jury. John Golha, the New York barber who said that Thorn told him he killed Guldensuppe, was in District Attorney Young's office early and was very nervous.

Naticook, Pa., Sept. 15.—The cage in which 19 men were being lowered into shaft No. 2 of the Alden Coal company this morning suddenly dropped to the bottom of the shaft. Eight of the men were severely injured and the injuries of four may prove fatal. The mine is 650 feet deep. The cage had started down the shaft and the engineer losing control of the machinery, it dropped to the bottom at a terrific speed. The steel cage itself was broken and twisted and the men narrowly escaped instant death. The four most seriously injured have been removed to the Wilkesbarre hospital.

MR. ANDREWS YIELDS

Will Continue to Act as President of Brown University.

LETTER GIVING THE DECISION.

Nothing to Indicate How the Change Was Effected.

Providence, Sept. 15.—Brown university opened today. All the undergraduates and prospective members of the freshman class are back in town. The moment a knot of students formed the talk was about the resignation of Dr. Andrews. Student-like they have not concealed their feelings in the least. They even talked of burning in effigy a Massachusetts congressman who originally brought the attention of the corporation to the silver virus of Brown's president.

Last night the college cast off its thoughtful mood and celebrated as though the football eleven had defeated its most bitter rival. President Andrews yesterday afternoon withdrew his resignation, and that is the cause of the rejoicing. His letter read:

Brown University, Sept. 14.

To W. V. Kollen, J. L. Stimes and L. C. Hazard, committee: Gentlemen—The resolution of the corporation of Brown university on the 1st inst., communicated to me by you, has been carefully considered. I take pleasure in assuring you that the action referred to entirely does away with the scruple which led to my resignation. At the date, however, when you had the communication before me, I had undertaken to perform the coming year certain work which, after learning the judgment of the corporation on the subject, I came to regard as incompatible with the duties of the presidency. I therefore felt obliged at first to adhere to my resignation; but being now free to give to the university my undivided service, I have withdrawn my resignation, and have notified the secretary of the corporation to that effect.

This move is entirely unexpected. A week ago Dr. Anderson, secretary of the corporation, admitted that he had received a letter from Dr. Andrews resigning his resignation. This was believed to be an answer to the request of that body made at its meeting Sept. 1, requesting Dr. Andrews to withdraw his resignation. Secretary Anderson announced that he would issue a notice of a meeting for a time which seemed most convenient for the purpose of electing a new president or a temporary one. This was taken to mean that Dr. Andrews had finally decided to take charge of his college of correspondence. Not even the most hopeful of Dr. Andrews' friends seemed to expect that there would be any other result. The change must have been brought about by considerable pressure, it is thought. It is said that Dr. Andrews was closeted yesterday afternoon with a committee, approach to which was carefully guarded. Whether this was a factor in the announcement is not known, nor does there seem to be any reason why this latest action was made.

The Brown boys appointed a delegation to wait on the president and to ask him to address them from the steps of his residence. Dr. Andrews thanked the students for their interest in him, but declined to say anything, reserving until chapel this morning whatever of importance is to be announced. The boys dispersed reluctantly with a song in which they affectionately addressed him as "Boonie."

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEVITIES.

The house of John Burgess of Nashua, N. H., with its contents, was totally burned. Loss, $3000.

A young woman registered as M. Warner of New York, and then committed suicide. She is said to be a southerner by that name.

Miss Sarah Randall of Baltimore died yesterday on the eve of the 10th anniversary of her birth from the effects of a paralytic stroke. She claimed to have been a relative of Samuel J. Randall of Philadelphia, and professed to have had a clear recollection of having met Lafayette during her girlhood.

Mr. Lansing continued his address before the Boarding and Commission yesterday at Halifax, and again took up the discussion of the question of the estimate of prospective catch. He strongly argued that in some cases there were inaccuracies not only in the claim for estimated catch, but in that for skins really taken.

The secretary of war has appointed a board of engineers' officers to investigate certain reports that the work upon the river and harbor improvements at Savannah river and Cumberland sound, under the charge of Captain Oberlin M. Carter, has not been done in accordance with the project of the department. It is expressly stated that there is no statement of irregularity in the accounts.

At a meeting of the committee appointed by the Clothing Cutters and Trimmers' union of Boston resolutions were adopted condemning the recent shooting of miners at Lattimer, Pa.; denouncing government by injunction, and demanding that "before the public moneys shall be used to protect employers in dispute with their employees, moneys shall be used to protect the subject of such dispute shall first be heard and a decision rendered by a duly appointed tribunal."

Peter McBride, who has been playing ball with the Lyons, N. Y. club, has returned home and from the account of his work it will not be hard for him to secure a position with some of the best teams in the country next season. His record while away for the past few months is really remarkable and at Lyons the people almost went wild over him. His last game was played at Lyons September 12. It was to decide whether Palmyra or Canandaigua, the leaders in the state league should win the pennant. Lyons was in favor of the latter and as they were to play against Palmyra they would make every effort to win. Many of the Canandaiguans were present to help cheer for Lyons and discourage their opponents. As stated by a local newspaper the Lyons team placed all hope in McBride and from the following taken from a special dispatch to a Rochester daily newspaper, the local expert proved equal to the occasion.

"As the Lyons team was leaving the ground, Pliocher McBride was caught and hustled into a wagon, the horses were detached and beside Judge Rice, the sheriff of Ontario county, and other leading Canandaigua citizens, the triumphant march to Congress hall was commenced. The Canandaiguans were beside themselves with joy over the victory. McBride was given $100 and was hugged several times. The Canandaigua contingent begged him to accompany them to Canandaigua for the night, assuring him that he would have the freedom of the village and something else."

McBride trucked out 10 men during the game and but three hits were made off his delivery. The score resulted 7 to 5. Of the eight games which he pitched during his stay in Lyons he won all but one. He expects to leave for the south in March, 1906, where he has a good offer.

This Evening's Kirmess.

The kirmess to be given in the opera house this evening promises to be one of the finest entertainments of the kind ever given in this town. It is carried on by 150 local people who have been thoroughly trained by Rev. E. Wales of Brattleboro, Vt., and his reputation as conductor of such entertainments is a worthy one. A full dress rehearsal was held Tuesday evening and everything was done in a perfect manner. The dances are all artistic and the costumes are elegant. Calcium lights will be used and Palmer's orchestra will furnish music. The proceeds are for the benefit of St. Paul's Universalist church. Do not miss it.

A Convert.

Last week Mary Katie Storum, born in Germany in 1855, wife of Barthazar Neff of French origin has abjured protestantism for Catholicism. She received baptism at the hands of Rev. Father Triganne. The godfather was Rev. Father Gobeil and the godmother, Mrs. Amable Brasseur. And afterward made her first communion and last Sunday she was admitted as a member of the association of the scalpar of Mount Carmel.

Local Man Honored.

Robert Paine, Jr., chairman of the committee on resolutions at the coming Democratic state convention, has issued letters to various prominent democrats throughout the state asking for a draft of their views on a Democratic platform. Among them was one sent to James E. Cadogan of this town.

To Be Observed Sunday.

A special program is being arranged for Notre Dame church Sunday when they will observe the feast of the "Seven Dolours" after which the church was named. A solemn high mass will be celebrated and the music will be prepared especially for the occasion.

Notice for Registration.

Notices for registration were posted today. The registrars will be at the town hall next Saturday afternoon from 1 to 5 and 7 to 9 p. m., to give citizens a chance to register and to correct the voters' list. The registrars are James Clark, A. W. Safford, Godfrey Sanderson, Jr., and F. H. B. Munson.

Democratic Caucus.

The Democrats will meet in caucus this evening at 8 o'clock in the district court room to elect delegates to the state, congressional, councilor, county, senatorial and representative conventions. Also to elect a new Democratic town committee for the year 1906.

Dr. D. McCabe of Winchendon is visiting Rev. D. C. Moran.

Frank Whitaker was in court Tuesday morning for non-support of his wife. The case was continued until Thursday morning.

Many of the Canandaiguans were present to help cheer for Lyons and discourage their opponents. As stated by a local newspaper the Lyons team placed all hope in McBride and from the following taken from a special dispatch to a Rochester daily newspaper, the local expert proved equal to the occasion.

McBride trucked out 10 men during the game and but three hits were made off his delivery. The score resulted 7 to 5. Of the eight games which he pitched during his stay in Lyons he won all but one. He expects to leave for the south in March, 1906, where he has a good offer.

KISSING ANIMALS.

An Extremely Dangerous Habit Often Indulged In.

At Lenox one morning last autumn I was witness to two little incidents that read like a lesson, which I may be pardoned for teaching.

Walking from the postoffice, I met a friend who had arrived at his cottage the previous evening. Stopping to greet him, I found him very enthusiastic over an imported bound which he had brought with him and of which he spoke with the greatest animation. I am not such a lover of dogs and cats as some people are, but it is always good policy to be interested in that which interests others, and one or two questions on my part led my friend to turn about and take me by the arm and escort me to his place to see that wonderful dog.

There was no doubt that it was a remarkable creature and that it had a grand pedigree, but to my eye a bound pup 6 months old comes as near to being ungainly as any animal. Such a gaunt body on such long and snowy legs is at the best a little less than ideal. To add to this, my friend's solicitude for the little animal and his enthusiasm were just a little nauseating, but the climax was reached when, as the pet disported itself on the lawn in its awkward grace, a fat farmer's big black dog ran up from the street to make friends with the little fellow from France.

"Here, here," my friend exclaimed in the greatest excitement, running out to intercept the rural beast, "here! Go off at once! Go on, go on!"

"That dog will not bite him," I hastened to say, recognizing the old Dewey dog that every citizen knows.

"Presume not! Presume not!" was the reply. "But I wouldn't have any dog living rub noses with Glorieux."

Then I laughed.

"Very careful of his associates, aren't you?" I carelessly repeated my friend.

"Certainly I am. Why, that is a most dangerous thing for another dog, older than my puppy, to smell of his nose. It is liable to communicate tapeworm, don't you see? If Glorieux were an old dog, it would be different, but no owner of a fine puppy ever permitted familiarity with an older dog."

Hardly half an hour later, returning home, I passed a house where on the front veranda a nurserymaid had a child, perhaps 2 years old, and with it a sleek moustiff. I was attracted to the scene as I passed. The child was screaming with delight, and the great, yellow beast, at the child's bidding, was "kissing little Charlie," showing little boy how much Fido loves him. "The dog would lick the child's face, meanwhile wagging its tail with pleasure, and encouraged by the little one's laughter. The mother of the child, coming from the lawn, put down her own face and kissed the child and then the brutal. It was a pretty picture, though silly, and I should have forgotten it the next moment had not the previous incident been fresh in my mind. It led me to think and to investigate. Here was a dog's owner prohibiting his pet the caresses given to another's child. Silly? No. Children should never be permitted to have a dog or cat lick the face, and, more than that, there should never be any kissing of the pets. It may be without harm, but it is not free from danger. That which my friend considered to be quite true. Yet many authorities agree that the eggs of the tapeworm of the dog (Taenia cucumerina) and that of the cat (Taenia elliptica) are "frequently found upon the tongue of the animals," and "persons, from a mistaken familiarity with these animals, may be contaminated." It is known that both of these taenia infest man and that they are as formidable as taenia solium. Baillaz, Andry and others have demonstrated that the eggs can be carried from one animal to another, and Kuchenmeister has made numerous helminthological experiments to demonstrate the fact. The parasite, common in the human organism, is more common to the dog, one authority going so far as to say that the animal is almost never free from it. Let an infected dog "kiss" or lick a child's lips, and the possibility of communication is not far removed.—Baby.

Local Man Honored.

Robert Paine, Jr., chairman of the committee on resolutions at the coming Democratic state convention, has issued letters to various prominent democrats throughout the state asking for a draft of their views on a Democratic platform. Among them was one sent to James E. Cadogan of this town.

To Be Observed Sunday.

A special program is being arranged for Notre Dame church Sunday when they will observe the feast of the "Seven Dolours" after which the church was named. A solemn high mass will be celebrated and the music will be prepared especially for the occasion.

Notice for Registration.

Notices for registration were posted today. The registrars will be at the town hall next Saturday afternoon from 1 to 5 and 7 to 9 p. m., to give citizens a chance to register and to correct the voters' list. The registrars are James Clark, A. W. Safford, Godfrey Sanderson, Jr., and F. H. B. Munson.

Democratic Caucus.

The Democrats will meet in caucus this evening at 8 o'clock in the district court room to elect delegates to the state, congressional, councilor, county, senatorial and representative conventions. Also to elect a new Democratic town committee for the year 1906.

Dr. D. McCabe of Winchendon is visiting Rev. D. C. Moran.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Stage Route to be Restored.

People living on the road between this town and Pittsfield will be glad to know that the government respected their petition and has arranged to restore the mail service which formerly existed for many years. Bids for carrying the mail between here and Pittsfield were called for some time ago and the contract has been awarded to Ambrose A. Call of Algona, Iowa, who will, of course, sublet it. The new arrangement will go into effect October 1 and Darius Goodell, who is now carrying the mail between this town and New Ashford, has been officially notified. Under the new arrangement the mail will be carried between here and Pittsfield once a day, and in addition to this it must be carried twice a day between here and South Williamstown and between Pittsfield and Lanesboro from June 1 to September 30. The stage will leave Williamstown at 7 in the morning and reach Pittsfield at noon, and on the return trip it will leave Pittsfield at 2 o'clock p. m. and reach this town at 7. During the summer the team making the extra trip between here and South Williamstown will leave this village at 3.30 p. m. and arrive in South Williamstown at 4.55 returning, leave South Williamstown at 8 p. m. and arrive here at 9. This arrangement will greatly accommodate the people interested and will be generally appreciated.

Death from Typhoid Fever.

Felix Royal, aged 19 years, died Tuesday morning of typhoid fever after an illness of about two weeks. He had worked in A. E. Hall's store and at other places and was well liked. He was a bright and active young fellow of cheerful disposition and his death is mourned by many friends. His father, Isaac Royal, died several months ago and his mother has been dead five or six years. He leaves three brothers and three sisters. The funeral will be attended from the French church Thursday morning.

Sent to Jail.

Frank Wicklan was in the police court Tuesday charged with the larceny of a number of articles from W. J. Metcalf, manager of the town farm at Sweet's Corners. He was convicted and sentenced to four months in the house of correction, to which place he was taken by Sheriff Eldridge.

An Extra switch gang was put on in the railroad yard Tuesday morning. A great deal of grain is going over the road at present and business is brisk. The train hands are making extra time and feeling well.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goodell are spending a few days in North Adams with their parents. Mr. Goodell has been disabled for a week with a sprained hand, and it will be some time yet before he will be able to resume work. Fortunately he has an accident policy which will pay him $7.50 a week during his disability.

South Williamstown people attended the Pittsfield fair today, and others will go Thursday.

Dr. Franklin Carter has been in Boston a few days.

The work of preparing the foundation for a stone road on Cole avenue was begun Tuesday. The drawing of crushed stone will probably begin Thursday.

The South street sewer was finished Tuesday. The golf club house has been connected with it and town water has been placed in the house.

The Williamstown Water company hopes to finish its new reservoir this month. The paving of the banks is nearly completed, but there is considerable more work of various kinds to be done.

A large party of young people took a trolley ride Tuesday evening and had a very enjoyable time, though the air was full chilly enough for comfort.

The plastering of the D. K. E. house was begun Tuesday. Lewis Shields of North Adams does the work by contract. King Windsor cement is used instead of ordinary mortar. This comes ready mixed and needs only the addition of water, and it hardens a great deal quicker than common mortar.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Gale returned Tuesday from a trip to St. Albans, Vt. While there Mr. Gale bought a fine span of Morgan horses.

Mrs. J. H. Thornton received Tuesday from Springfield, where she spent the summer. Her health is considerably improved.

A. J. Waterman and niece of Pittsfield made a brief call on relatives in town Tuesday.

SOUTH WILLIAMSTOWN.

The annual report of the Congregational church has been issued by the pastor, Rev. G. P. Merrett, and it contains facts and figures which must be of much interest to the congregation. Mr. Merrett pleasantly reviews the work of the year and the figures show that the average attendance for the year was as follows: Sunday morning, 76; evening, 61; Sunday school, 47; Y. P. S. C. E. meetings, 25. The receipts from collections, pew rents, socials, etc., were $691.84, while the expenses were $621.42, leaving a balance of $69.42. Ten persons were added to the membership during the year. In his comments Mr. Merrett refers in an appreciative way to the generosity of J. W. Fiske of New York, who spends his summer here. He presented to the church a heating furnace and new chandelier and lamps, and has in other ways shown his interest in the church. The good work done by the Y. P. S. C. E. and the Ladies' Aid society is also spoken of and the report from beginning to end is full of interest and encouragement.

THE FARM

Painting Farm Machinery Cheaply.

The wooden parts of all farm machinery should be painted every three or four years and the iron parts that are worn should have a coat of paint every season and the sooner after the season's work is over, the better. No matter how well protected, the polished metal portions will draw dampness and corrode. Some grease the mold boards, shares, etc., but this does more harm than good. The proper way is to paint them.

Get five or six gallons of raw linseed oil, a gallon or two of white lead, a small box of Prussian blue, a small box of chrome yellow in paste form, and 10 to 15 lbs. of venetian red in powder. For the wooden parts there is nothing better than venetian red and raw linseed oil. The mixture will make a dark red. If a bright red is preferred, mix some chrome yellow with it in the proportion of 15 parts of venetian red to one part of the yellow. This makes vermilion, the brightest red known. If blue is wanted mix white lead 4 parts with one of Prussian blue. This will give a dark blue which can be made as light as wanted by adding white. Green is made by mixing yellow and blue. Any of these colors will answer for the wooden portions of the machinery. Do not use any drier, as the paint will last much longer without it. In winter a much longer time between coats is required for paint to dry than in summer, but when it has become solid it lasts much longer than if it dries rapidly.

Do not use white lead to paint metal surfaces of any kind, for the acetic acid it contains will tend to corrode them. For all this kind of work use venetian red and oil or get some of the common black paint sold especially for this purpose. For the portions which are expected to scour, mold boards, plow shares and similar points, etc., use a paint made as follows: Mix yellow ochre with coal tar and thin to a working consistency with turpentine. This will effectually prevent rusting but it will rub off quite readily when the plow is to be used.—American agriculturist.

Vaccinating Against Blackleg.

A vaccine against blackleg was discovered by French scientists about 15 years ago, and is now extensively used where this disease prevails. With this as a basis the bureau of animal industry at Washington, D. C., has prepared vaccine and tested it on a large number of calves in Texas. The results warrant the conclusion that it is very satisfactory, but before distributing it generally it is desired to obtain a record of several thousand successful vaccinations.

For this purpose a quantity of vaccine will be distributed to such parties as may desire to make preliminary vaccinations and report the results to the bureau. Those stock owners will be preferred who already have experience in vaccinating stock for blackleg, and are in possession of a vaccinating outfit. Explicit instructions will, however, be sent with the vaccine, to secure uniformity of operation and to assist those without previous experience in the vaccinations. Persons lacking the necessary outfit should procure one if they propose to test the vaccine. It consists of a graduated 5 cc syringe with detachable needles, a small porcelain mortar and pestle, a glass funnel and some filters. This outfit cannot be supplied by the department, but must be purchased of some house which supplies such articles.

Upon applying for vaccine, please answer the following questions: To what extent does blackleg prevail in your part of the country and how great is your annual loss from this disease? What experience have you had in vaccinating calves against blackleg? How many head do you wish to vaccinate, and what class or cattle are they, common, graded, or full blood? What is your express office? The process is very simple, consisting of the injecting the virus into an opening through the loose skin on the chest just behind the shoulder.

What Do the Children Drink?

Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called Grain-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about 1/4 as much. All grocers sell it. 15c. and 25c.

To Be Comfortable This Weather.

Have a box of "Hyperiridosis Toilet Powder" handy where it can immediately be used for chafing, sunburn, bites, prickly heat, itching eczema, irritation from truss wearing, burns, cuts, tired, smarting and swollen feet, excessive perspiration of the hands, arm pits and feet. It does not injure the health by stopping perspiration, as the amount is not reduced below the natural quantity. Pleasant to use, it is grateful and cooling if fluence is felt at once. For sale by Derrlett Drug Store, Berkshire Cycle Co., Weber Shoe Store, Murdock Shoe Store.

The only condition required, to become eligible, is that each person entering this contest must be a new subscriber either to the Daily TRANSCRIPT, for one month, or the Weekly TRANSCRIPT for six months, or (if you are now a subscriber yourself) send in such new subscription for some one else not now a subscriber. The price of such subscription is only 50 cents. Get a new subscriber at the regular price and you are eligible to the contest.

A competitor's certificate, with full directions for making out the list of words will be sent to each person who complies with the above conditions. The rules are so simple that a ten-year-old boy or girl with pluck and perseverance can win the prize, but along with others we trust that all the ladies who have been interested in the Woman's Corner will try for it. Start immediately and take plenty of time. The contest will be closed and the gold awarded on October 4.

It costs you nothing to compete. You simply take the Daily TRANSCRIPT one month, or the Weekly TRANSCRIPT six months, at regular rates, if you are not now a subscriber. If you are now a subscriber, you will secure a new subscriber, or send one of these papers for this short period to some one not now a subscriber.

Everybody compete. You may be the lucky one to get the

SUPREME COURT

THE JOHN O'NEIL EXCEPTIONS

Lawyer Beer Asked for More Time. District Attorney Knowlton Wants Arguments to be Heard at Springfield. Tilton-Marlin Case Again.

The September sitting of the supreme judicial court began at Pittsfield Tuesday and the number and importance of the cases on the docket more than ever convinced the local bar, who were in attendance in goodly numbers, that the attempt to take the sittings away from the county was not advisable.

The sitting began promptly at 9 o'clock with Chief Justice Field and Associate Justices Allen, Morton, Barker and Holmes on the bench. Rev. Dr. Thompson of the Methodist church opened the sitting with prayer. The docket was called and all the nine cases were ready for hearing. In the cases of Patrick Daley and James Bowes, petitioners, motions to dismiss were heard, but they were afterward argued. The suits grew out of the building of the block at Adams by Charles E. Legate and two others, and nine workmen fled mechanic liens to recover pay for work and materials furnished. Only two of the cases were heard, as representing the other six, the auditor having found against one party.

Lawyer E. H. Bear, counsel for John O'Neil, the Franklin county man convicted of murder, asked for further time in which to prepare briefs for argument on the exceptions heard Friday and filed Saturday with the clerk of Franklin county. Attorney General Knowlton was not present, but telephoned that he preferred Springfield as the place to hear exceptions and the court so ordered. They will be heard when the full bench met in Springfield two weeks hence. This gives an extension of a week, it being expected that the arguments would be held in Greenfield on Tuesday.

In the case of Frank L. Tilton, administrator, against the Boston & Albany railroad, long arguments were made and the whole ground covered. There were maps and plans exhibited on both sides. The case grows out of the killing of Ralph Martin of Savoy on the Park street crossing in Adams in December, 1895, and the case has been twice tried by the superior court, a new trial being granted last fall. The jury gave Tilton, as administrator, about $3,900, and the defendants except to the verdict as being excessive and against the evidence, and also because the motion for a new trial was overruled. M. Wilcox appeared for the appellant and Crosby & Noxon for the plaintiff.

—Let all say in their hearts, "It is on hospital," and give accordingly.

THE HOSPITAL CANVASS.

The Hospital's Appeal to the Higher, Better Promptings.

It would be a work of supererogation to undertake to estimate the importance and assured benefit which the existence of such an institution as the hospital is to our city and adjacent towns. It should represent in its resources for support the sympathy and aid of all classes and conditions of our citizens and neighbors, and this can only be secured by a voluntary offering from the people in general.

The hope of attaining to this has prompted the method of distributing envelopes, with the request that a hearty free-will offering of money be enclosed and returned to the proper officials of the board of control. During the coming week canvassers will call on our citizens, and, however limited the sums of money may necessarily be, it is hoped that they may be gauged by the comparative sympathy and circumstances of every one appealed to.

It is on such occasions as this, that the noblest impulses of our complex natures may find expression. The higher, better promptings of character are tested and the seed sown with the child's voluntary offering of a penny, will take root and develop into a noble and generous beneficence which will characterize and enrich the later life. Let this occasion be to our city a jubilee time of grateful recognition of our many blessings, and because our list of sick and suffering ones is limited, let us acknowledge the fact in a generous way, for in our hospital we are maintaining the essentials to preserve the morality of the afflicted, as well as the means for properly caring for the unfortunate ones.

The ladies of the board of control are anticipating a generous response to this special effort to raise funds for the hospital, as in this way only are the majority of our citizens reached.

THE BUTCHERS' CLAM BAKE.

To be Held Thursday Afternoon in Howland's Grove at Zylonite.

The butchers will hold their clam bake Thursday afternoon in C. E. Howland's grove at Zylonite. All the markets will close at 1 o'clock and the butchers will assemble in the grove at 2 with many of their friends, as a good number of tickets have been sold to outsiders at $1 each. Clams will be served in abundance with all the other good things which go to make up the successful clam bake and a very jolly time is anticipated. A game of ball will be played by the wholesalers, which is sure to be the event of the season in that line. There will be plenty of other sports and those who can conveniently attend should not miss the opportunity. When the beef choppers go out to eat clams they go for good time and are bound to have it. A delightful place has been selected, the affair will be well managed and every ticket buyer will get more than the worth of his money.

Notice.

A kindergarten for children living in the center of the city will be opened on Monday, September 18, in the O'Brien block, Union street. Children four years old will be admitted. L. F. HALL, Superintendent of Schools.

DISTRESSING CASE

WAS AT WORK ON A BUILDING.

Fell and His Hand Was Plunged Into the Bubbling Pail. His Chest Also Bespattered. The Tar Removed Today. His Injuries Serious.

Everett Loomis, a young man working on a block being erected on Lincoln street, met with a very serious accident Tuesday afternoon a little before 6 o'clock. A gravel roof is being put on and Loomis was carrying a pail of hot tar when he fell and his right hand and arm went into the tar half way to the elbow. The tar stuck like a plaster cast and burned the young man terribly. Some of it also spattered on his chest and burned him painfully, though his shirt offered some protection and this burn was not so severe as that on the hand and arm.

The young man was taken to his home on Royal avenue and attended by Dr. Carr. He was made as comfortable as possible under the circumstances. The tar could not be removed from the hand at the time, but was taken off today, and the skin and portions of the flesh came with it. The injury will disable Mr. Loomis for a long time and he will be fortunate if the hand is ever as good as before. It was extremely fortunate that none of the hot tar struck him in the face.

KISSED THE SENATOR.

Why George F. Hoar Spoke So Glowingly for Women.

A good story, says the Worcester Gazette, comes by way of North Adams where it was told with much zest in the little groups of people as they chatted together before and after the exercises attendant upon the dedication of the new State Normal school.

Senator Hoar, Pres. Mendenhall, Col. E. B. Stoddard, C. G. Washburn and Principal Russell went up from Worcester by way of Pittsfield, driving from there to North Adams on a backboard.

They walked up the long hills to stretch their legs and relieve their horses, and at the end of one of these hills the incident occurred which made the long drive memorable.

The party were walking, excepting Senator Hoar, who had kept in the wagon on this hill, and the pedestrians were well ahead of the horses when they heard the sound of singing ahead.

This was something worth investigating, and they pushed on rapidly to the brow of the hill, where they saw a picturesque group gathered under great trees in the yard of a comfortable farmhouse.

There were a score or more of children and a few men and women, and tables laden with picnic edibles were waiting for the hungry. Two of the Worcester men, whom we suspect to be Col. Stoddard and Dr. Mendenhall, approached the party and learned that the village school children were enjoying a little outing.

So they told the man who had come forward to greet the strangers that Senator Hoar would soon be along, and that he might be willing to say a few words to the children.

When the backboard drove up the senator was surprised to be accosted by a name by a stranger, with a request to speak to the school children, and he finally consented, to the delight of the gathering, of course.

And when he had concluded a happy little speech, the senator asked the privilege of shaking hands with the smallest girl present.

Presently a little tot went to him and presented a very small hand, and then the distinguished man asked the further favor that she kiss him. She will probably always remember the caress begged by the statesman and scholar.

The delighted farmer, who had been spokesman for the picnicers, saw his chance. "We have here the prettiest and best teacher in the town," he said, "and I think she should kiss Senator Hoar, too."

And no sooner had he spoken than a pretty young woman stepped forward and administered a salute which roused the envy of his friends as it brought the color to the face of the astonished senator.

The Permanent Improvements.

A lot of the brick to be used in paving Main street has arrived and has been carted to the sidewalk in front of Barnard & Co.'s store. The brick will keep on coming until as much as can be given space has arrived. The paving of the street will begin as soon as all preparations have been made. A number of men have been at work for several days placing the hydrants out of the street into the sidewalk so that they will not interfere with the paving when it is completed. The arrival of the rails of the Hoosac Valley street railway and a few more preparations only are needed to allow the work of paving to start. The contractor who has the paving of the street is an energetic man and will push the work as fast as possible when he gets started. There will be a race on the part of Barnard & Co. to have the granite for Marshall street here before the work has begun on Main street and that thoroughfare becomes considerably unfit for heavy trucking. The Main street bridge will be here in a few days, and the new bridge, Main street paved and Marshall street paved will be the improved conditions that Commissioner Hunter will present in a bunch inside of a month. If obstruction tactics stop in the council chamber, a good brick road near the Normal school will be added to this list in about the same time.

Notice.

A kindergarten for children living in the center of the city will be opened on Monday, September 18, in the O'Brien block, Union street. Children four years old will be admitted. L. F. HALL, Superintendent of Schools.

WOMEN'S ANNUAL MEETING.

A Valuable Auxiliary of the Congregational Church.

The Women's association of the Congregational church held its annual meeting Tuesday afternoon in the chapel. The meeting was well attended and was a very profitable one. The business of the meeting was the election of officers and the reading of the reports by several officers. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. J. P. Goodrich; secretary and treasurer, Miss Hattie Beaton.

The reports were by Mrs. J. P. Goodrich, chairman of the committee that had in charge the recent renovating of the church, and Mrs. C. H. Cutting, who reported concerning the recent purchases of property made by the sewing society for the church. Both reports were very interesting and were very satisfactory to the society. The report of Mrs. Goodrich showed the good work done during the vacation weeks, and the report by Mrs. Cutting gave the plan the women will follow to raise the money to pay the debt incurred by the property purchases.

The church begins a very auspicious year as far as the women are concerned, for they have had the church put in very good condition and have added quite largely to its material possessions by the addition of valuable property adjoining. Few churches get such valuable assistance from their women.

Search Light Excursion to New York

The first of the fall series of excursions to New York via Citizens Line Steamers from stations on Fitchburg R. R. between Greenfield and Troy, also from Greenfield, Saratoga and Schuylerville will occur on Tuesday, September 28. The Citizens' Line have equipped their steamers with electric search lights, which are operated until midnight, making the trip as attractive as if made by daylight. The tickets for this excursion are good only on train leaving North Adams at 5.00 p. m. Tuesday, September 28, arriving at Troy at 8.55 p. m., connecting with steamer "City of Troy" same evening. Returning tickets good to leave New York to and including steamer of Monday, October 4, and on Fitchburg to and including Tuesday, October 5. Excursion rate from North Adams only $2.25.

F. M. Wheeler has sold his yoke of oxen to E. S. Rice.

Mr. D. K. Gillett is away for a few weeks, visiting friends and relatives in Connecticut.

Mrs. E. P. Howes of Leyden is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ethel Wheeler.

H. K. Clark of Boston was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Ruberg last week at the parsonage.

Miss Angie Ballou with Miss Roberts of Monroe were in town Sunday.

M. Brooks, who has been living on the place owned by Mr. Companion, has moved to the farm owned by John Sumner.

Mrs. Sarah Wilbur of Adams was the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. B. Bliss, last week.

Mrs. Bertha Bliss is visiting friends and relatives in Pittsfield.

M. C. Harris and wife, who have been spending the summer with Mr. Harris's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Thatcher, have returned to their home in Amherst.

Willis Burnett and wife of Savoy visited their daughter, Mrs. Norman Greenleaf, the past week.

Miss Sarah Read has returned to Amsterdam, N. Y. Miss Read has been home through her summer vacation.

The ten cent supper held at the parsonage on Wednesday evening of last week was enjoyed by those who were in attendance. Although not a large company was present, those who were there voted it one of the most pleasant of evenings.

Games were enjoyed, also music. Mr. Clark of Boston, who was present, entertained the company with songs, as did also Mrs. E. R. Barrett, and M. E. Cahn of Savoy. The supper was served in the usual abundant and generous style that is characteristic of the Florida ladies; and we think that for a superior article in the way of ice cream they cannot be beaten.

GREEN RIVER.

Mrs. F. B. Thomas is spending the week with friends at Riverside, Mass.

People are cutting their rowen and report a fine crop.

—Every citizen of North Adams will gladly welcome the ladies interested in the envelope canvass for the North Adams hospital. The canvass begins on September 19 and should, and will, result in liberal subscriptions for this noble institution upon the part of every one solicited.

—Miss Blanche Millard is in Providence and Newport, R. I., and Boston for a two weeks' vacation.

—Smoke Calman's "Hudson Club" 5 cent cigar.

AUTUMN AND WINTER A. D. MDCCCXCVII

The furniture season of 1897-8 is here. So, too, is prosperity. The tariff is settled. Business is reviving on all sides. Stocks have risen. Confidence is restored. The crops are enormous.

But do not forget one point: Every dollar's worth of Furniture we now offer was made in the dull time of last Winter and Spring. Then labor was cheap. Materials were low. Now they are high. This same Furniture could not be built today except at a large increase in price.

You will make no advance. You can buy this Furniture of us for the full-time quotations of the last two years. It is an opportunity which may not come again in a decade. Next year the Furniture made in a period of prosperity will, under a high tariff, today we are selling Furniture made on the lowest level of cost.

It is very beautiful in design. Not in a long time has there been such artistic cabinetwork as this year's production. It is a long step in advance of last season, and it will be sure of appreciation for some years to come on account of its rare beauty. Especially prominent are some historic reproductions of old Colonial Furniture, hitherto copied in every detail.

Our stock this week is very large. A first choice is extensive and unusually valuable, as we have but one or two pieces of the different patterns. To all our customers we would urge the wisdom of an immediate inspection.

The same advice applies even more strongly to Hangings and Coverings. Our Upholstery came in under the old tariff, just before the advance. We offer it accordingly, in some cases it is two dollars' worth for one dollar.

Don't fail to get our estimates on interior Furnishing. Wall Papers in particular are more artistic than ever this season, and our stock comprises hundreds of new patterns.
